Year 6 Update—Who we are

'People have rights and responsibilities in order to keep safe in society' is the central idea that has been investigated across Year 6 in our first Unit of Inquiry. Students explored the key concepts of responsibility and connection to gain a deeper understanding of the central idea, whilst addressing the lines of inquiry that 'People's actions can affect others' and 'Power and Relationships'. This has been supported with a number of in-school visits and excursions, including sessions run by the RAA Road Safety team and Life Education van (discussing relationships and decision making). We spent a day at the Superloop 500 and a team building session at the Woodhouse Activity Centre where students were involved in Challenge Hill, a rope crossing activity, orienteering and a labyrinth maze.

Our learning has focused on keeping safe in society by completing a graphic organiser to gain prior knowledge of the concept, a vignette to show the different aspects of a bullying situation and concluded with the Year 6 students presenting to their peers on themes from across the Child Protection Curriculum that utilised the IB Approaches to Learning (ATL's) of researching, communicating, thinking and time management skills.

Year 6 & 7 Marionette Puppets

Our creative Year 6 & 7 students demonstrated their understanding of the Line of Inquiry, People's actions can affect others (connection) by designing and building marionette puppets.

Students used recycled materials and items from the environment; completed a detailed procedure outlining the steps taken to make the puppet; and then created a short 2 to 3 minute movie focusing on the power relationships between a bully, victim and bystander!

A wonderful example of transdisciplinary learning.
